Responding to volunteers.

1. When a volunteer responds to your invite, OR expresses an interest in your vacancy, you will receive an email like this:

Subject: New response regarding your Inspiring Governance opportunity

Dear [recruiter name],

[volunteer name] has indicated that they Accepted your invitation to Governor recruitment.

Response message:

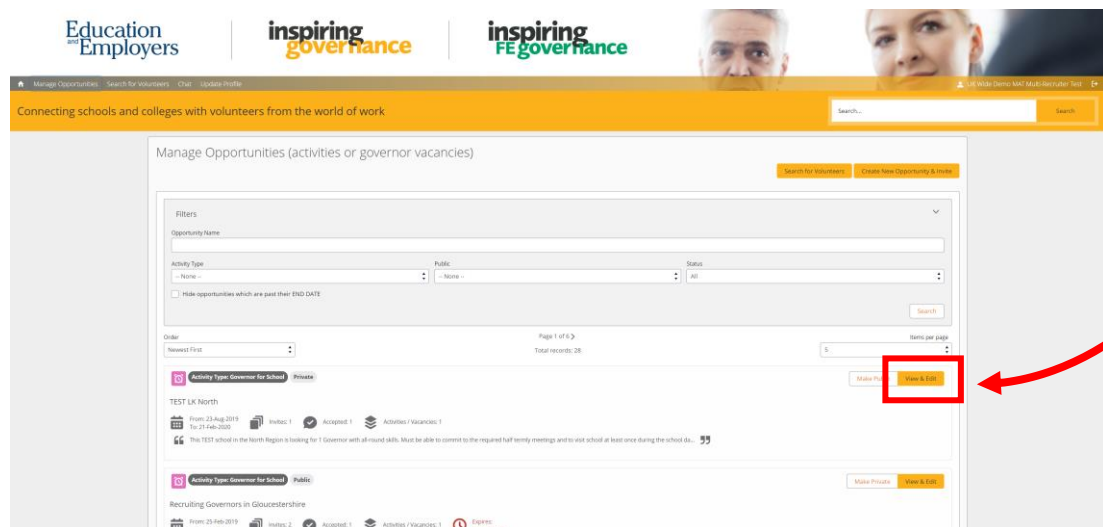

I would love to speak to you about the vacancy at your school. Let's arrange a meeting to discuss the role.

Please log in to your account to respond to the volunteer. You will find them under the opportunity you have created - so please go to 'Manage Opportunities'.

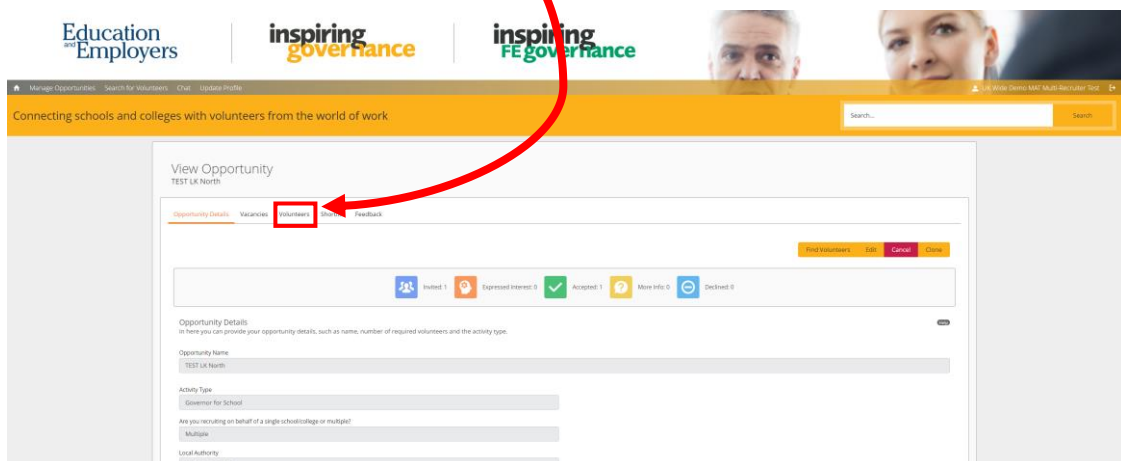

Thank you for your involvement with Inspiring the Future: Inspiring Governance

2. Log in, and go to 'Manage Opportunities' (top left on menu bar or the button below).

3. Click 'View and Edit' next to the vacancy you are working on.

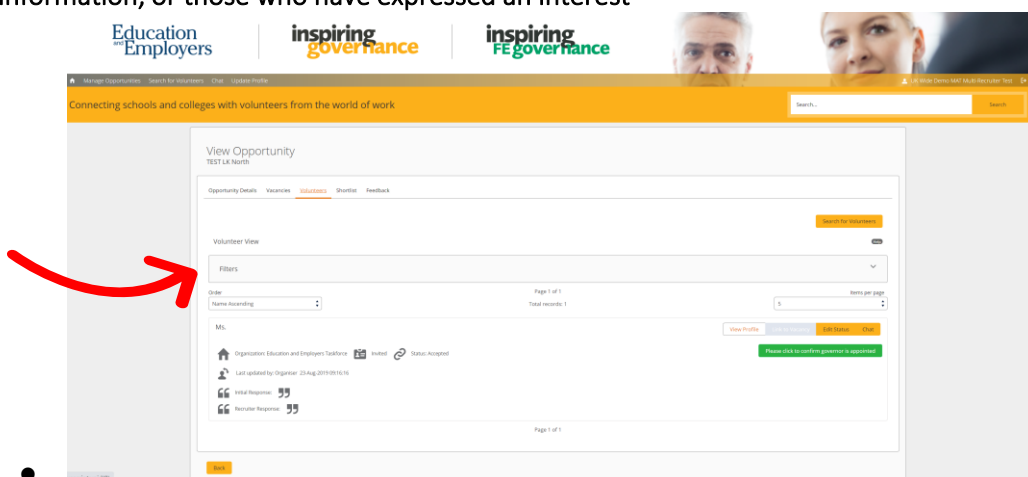

4. Click the 'Volunteers' tab

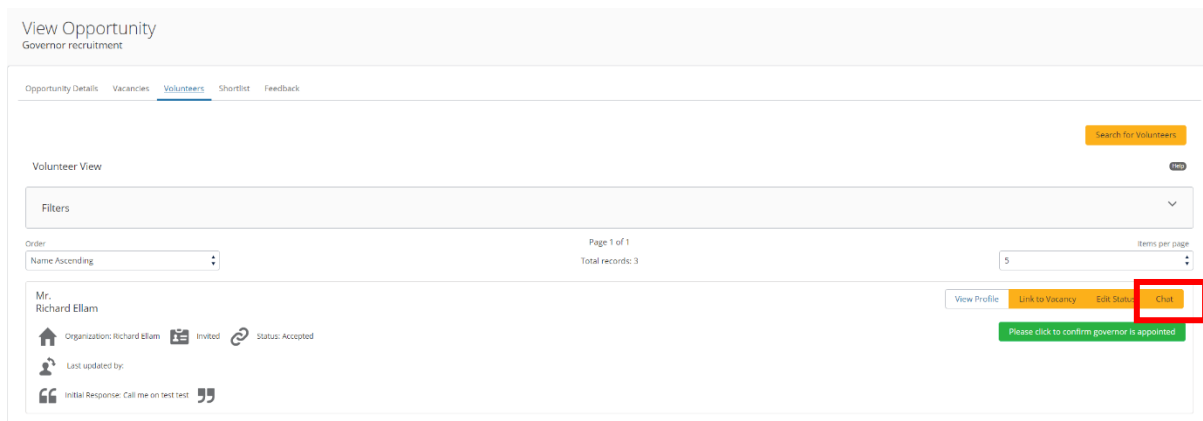

5. Find the volunteer you wish to respond to.

- Here you can use the 'Filter' function to find volunteers who have accepted, asked for more information, or those who have expressed an interest

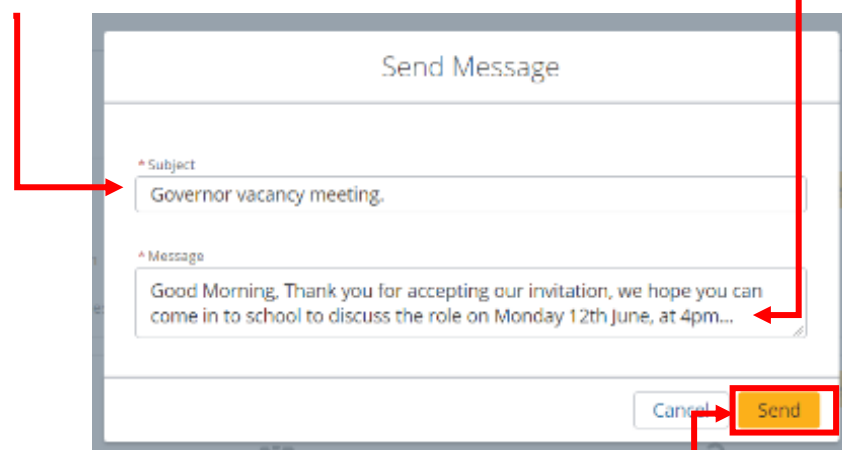

Click on 'Filters' to see all the options.

6. Click 'Chat' next to the volunteer's name.

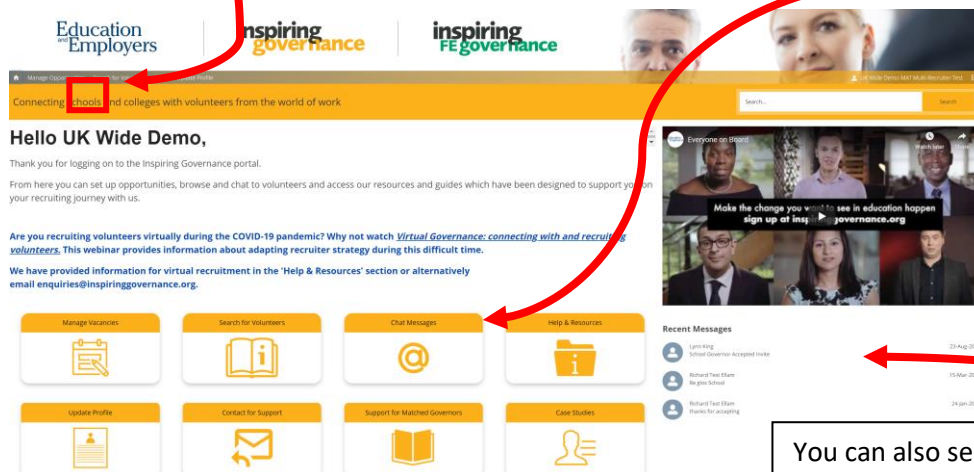

7. Create a subject line and type your message in the text box.

8. Click 'Send'.
